WADSWORTH, W. K., Jan. 19.—Harriet Moore,

The HICKMAN COURIER.

HICKMAN, KY.,

FRIDAY, 11:11 JAN. 22, 1892.

FOR SHERIFF.

We are authorized to announce, to D. J. Johnson, that he has been elected Sheriff of Hickman county at the ensuing election. We are authorized to announce W. A. SHUCK as a candidate for Sheriff of Hickman county at the ensuing election, being the name of the Democratic party.

The recent lynching at Oxford, Ohio, has so far not been identified as another Southern outrage.

ST. LOUIS' magnanimity in helping Negroes get a fair hearing before the State National Convention is the wonder of the day.

The War Department has made inquiry of Missouri as to how many troops are now on the border with a view of Chile.

It is a safe prediction that the secret ballot will soon be employed at all popular elections. Thirty-three States have already adopted it.

The Post Office has been introduced in Congress to prevent the Post office department from printing a request for return on stamped envelopes.

WASHINGTON critics of West Virginia would draw it mild. If Governor Chapman is a good enough Democrat to bring him into the Democratic column, he is a good enough Democrat to lead that campaign.

The treasury commissioners make the issuing of free railroad passes to public officials a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of from $100 to $1,000. The passing of such passes or reduced rates is made cause to declare the official vacant.

There is no one who can put up with the State Government from New York. The State has long been Democratic, but through an ingenious gerrymandering of the districts, the Republicans have kept control of the Legislature. They have lost it finally and forever.

Death levels all heads. A proposal to limit the time of trial has gone to the great majority. Through his death illustrates the vanity of all earthly creatures, greater. The wife, wife, wife, the parents, brothers and sisters of Albert Victor grieve like common men, and animated clay of the same stuff the world over will pity them.

A BILL to prevent the sale of liquor to minors has been introduced. It provides that for the first offense the person shall be fined for a sum of from $1 to $5. Subsequent infractions are punishable by fines anywhere from $5 to $25 and imprisonment for a sum of from $100 to $500 for a minor. The seller is made liable for both sum and imprisonment, and the law is to be enforced.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat now says that the relative strength of this country and Chile is not rightly expressed by the statement that the latter is only three million. Chile is the strongest South American nation, with a population which will hold together, and when it is twice as strong as ours. Chile will fight at home, and we three or six thousand miles away.

Bill introduced in the Legislature to settle land title disputes has been introduced in the Legislature. It sets forth that no action shall be maintained for the possession of land between the State and the State where the claimant relies upon any grant or patent issued by the Commonwealth, Virginia, or Kentucky prior to 1820, against any person claiming such land by possession of a well known boundary under a title of record. The bill also stipulates that all claims paid to the State and local taxes assessed for at least twenty years next preceding the bringing of the action.

The Mexican government has proposed to the United States that the two nations shall jointly administer the boundary line when parsing Gómez's marauders. This was a sly trick, as the part of the Mexican army sent to help crush out rebellion in Mexico. This country is under the obligation to enter into the neutrality and to stop a step at Gómez's proceedings within the territory of the United States; and if he any of his forces, or any of his agents, should be given a fair trial and punished according to his deserts. But whenever he gets over to Mexico, he will be given a trial and punishment given to him in its own domain. Of course the proposal was politely declined.

It is a very interesting discussion that has been opened up at the provision of the new Constitution which requires all bills to be printed and read in separate sessions on separate days before they can become law. They think it cannot be done, and are wrong and the new Constitution right. Ninety per cent. of the erroneous and wrongful legislation of the past has come from reading bills through by reading only the caption, suspending the rule, and putting it through quickly. The Legislature needs to be a deliberative body, and the new law proposes to make it "deliberative" whether individual members want to or not.

Congressional Timber.

A Congressman is to be elected this year, and the woodmen are full of strong, tall, timber under, and timber enough to last a century. Between those of so much worth, equal growth and quality.

First in the list must be reckoned Capt. Stone, of Oregon, who has proven his ability, energy and efficiency. It goes without saying that the man who beats him will be Congressman.

Graves county has a dozen or more representatives and with the two most spoken of are Judge W. R. Robertson, and Cuthbert Pleasant Park.

Robertson is a profound lawyer, and a regular Saenger in political debate. He may not be the best Circuit Judge, but, as a state lawyer, is a self-sufficient, who has got his power. His power Graves county will present one of these, but which one gets the stronger sympathy. As a fact the "outs" are always glad the "in" go to a good place.

Fulton county Delegates are anxious to present me to the Legislature.

Bellringing for War.

We can't believe that this great, brave country will go to war with little Chili, but just now the warlike patrioticism of many newspapers is "fullblown," to speak, and many aroused politicians are "bellringing" far war, willing to sacrifice all their wives' relations to the cause of the "Czar" and cease to suffer in patience. This is a most dangerous danger, to be avoided at all costs. The content of millions may, ere long, shake the throne of the great white bear.

The enemies of the Roman Catholic Church in the United States have been increased. The number of priests has gone up to 10,000, and the number of nuns has increased to 15,000. The number of laymen has increased to 100,000.

Marshall county has a splendid candidate, the Hon. Bill Reed.

No kin to Reed of Maine, except as to ability, capacity and courage and fidelity to his party.

McCracken county is brimming over good material, the gallant Tom Moss, the princely Henry Burnet, the solid Judge Bullitt, the popular Bill Clark, ex Mayor Charles H. Hedges.

The Hon. C. T. Allen of Caldwell county, one of the ablest political stampers in the State, and has probably fought more battles for the Democracy than any man in the First District.

If the party owes any promotion, it certainly owes such a debt to C. T. Allen.

CONGRESSMAN, the Southerners' Alliance member, and the Cincinnati representative of Kansas in demanding his political extravagance in taxation and expenditure. This is the greatest proof that the best party in this country is the one most opposed to Republicanism.

Taxes were long-over train robbery last year, and in nearly every case the heavy escort was considerable. Only one or two instances of robbery were reported, and that the express messenger had his revolver resulted in putting the train in motion again. The amount of money taken was about $200,000.

COL. W. C. P. BRECKINRIDGE, the silver-haired and guide-lined senator of Kentucky, has been selected to deliver the inaugural oration at the Chicago World's Fair in October.

The Legislature of Kentucky seems to be standing in awe of the important work before it. So much to do, and so little time.

They are being made to establish a new county out of the West portion of Oldham, to be called Kentucky. It proposed to divide Oldham nearly half in two.

Political Caws.

The Republican politicians presented by making his dozen new States. They had a clear right to do so, but would not have done it but for the need of Republican electoral votes.

The Democrats have made Presidential election elective by Congressional Districts in California, and the majority of the House to vote down all bills proposing appropriations for bonuses or subsidies in money, public lands, bonds, or loan indenture or pledge of the public credit.

This leaves the bonanza to the sugar making corporations, the subversives to steamship corporations, and the railroads to the railroads. The railroads demand forsooth, that the Marquette Company demand to have the power of the interior of the state reserved that of taking water of the depth of about six feet, and the right to use it for any purpose, no matter how injurious to the health of the people.

This is a most dangerous demand, and who knows what will happen to the families of the railroads? The railroads are the enemies of abolition and except for strategic purposes, have not been encouraged in Russia. Too many railroads would carry too much information into the interior. The peasant would be compelled to give up his simple worship of the Czar and cease to suffer in patience. This is a most dangerous danger, to be avoided at all costs.

The north will have been transformed. No one will have any more voice in politics than the railroads, and the railroads will have all the voice of the railroads.

It is a safe prediction that the secret ballot will soon be employed at all popular elections. Thirty-three States have already adopted it.

The Post Office has been introduced in Congress to prevent the Post office department from printing a request for return on stamped envelopes.

THE FAIR RESOLUTIONS.

The passage of the Holman resolution commits the House of Representatives to a policy of the stunted economy. The first resolution pledges 227 Democrats, regardless of their views on the subject, to vote down all bills proposing appropriations for bonuses or subsidies in money, public lands, bonds, or loan indenture or pledge of the public credit.

This leaves the bonanza to the sugar making corporations, the subversives to steamship corporations, and the railroads to the railroads. The End of the World.

The following extract picture of the end of the world, as seen by the Chinese. The earth was to be, and will be, split in two, and the water will be poured out of the ocean.
